

Taxes and TARDIS

Taxes and TARDIS by N.R. Walker Brent is a jock, Logan a geek, these men are a world apart. But if opposites attract, maybe its the differences between them that make it worth the fight. Brent Kelly is a laid-back tradesman whose only concerns are drinks with friends and which man to bed next. In need of a new accountant to sort out his nightmarish shoebox of tax receipts, hes referred to Logan Willis. He doesnt expect to be intrigued by the science fiction-loving, geeky guy with dark-rimmed glasses and a TARDIS-blue shirt. So his fascination with the soft-spoken Englishman surprises him, and their mutual attraction is completely unexpected. He most certainly never expects to fall in love. One a jock and the other a geek, both men know the differences between them are vast and could cause problems. But in this opposites-attract erotic drama, maybe its the differences between them that make staying together worth the fight. About N.R. Walker N.R.
